

Mission

I am an infertility survivor, author, attorney and adoptive parent. I know first-hand the joy and the challenges that people face when trying to build a family through the miracles of third-party assisted reproduction or adoption. We live in an era of ever-changing technological and legal frontiers. The medical and legal options that are available to help you have a baby, or to assist someone to realize their dream of having a family, can be overwhelming, especially after years of infertility -- or when experiencing an unexpected pregnancy. You should know that your family, or the one you help create, is a "forever" family so you can move on and enjoy your life without any uncertainty.

I opened my law practice so that I may help other infertile individuals and couples become parents; and to help egg and sperm donors, surrogates, and birth parents navigate the complicated legal landscape of third-party assisted reproduction and/or adoption. My mission is to assist you in designing and implementing an individualized family-building plan that will help you realize your dreams as quickly as possible. My goal is to offer my clients highly personalized and compassionate legal services during a challenging time in life. As both a former patient and knowledgeable professional I am not only able to help you achieve your dreams and goals, but to do so in a way that minimizes any fears you may have so that you can focus on your future!

Services

Egg Donation:

Whether you are an intended parent or an egg donor entering into an egg donation arrangement, we can assist you in the preparation and negotiation of an anonymous or known egg donation agreement. We will prepare an agreement tailored to meet your specific needs and work to make sure you are protected during every step of the egg donation process.

Embryo Donation:

If you are interested in donating embryos, or becoming a recipient of donated embryos, we can help you locate a donor or recipient family, find a clinic to assist you with the embryo transfer procedure, and draft the appropriate legal documents to protect you and your family.

Gestational Surrogacy:

We provide a full range of services to individuals and couples entering into compassionate or compensated gestational surrogacy arrangements. We can help you with the preparation and negotiation of a Gestational Surrogacy Agreement or a Memorandum of Understanding for a compassionate surrogacy arrangement, and help genetic or intended parents establish their parental rights and obtain birth certificate(s).

Domestic Adoption:

We offer prospective adoptive parents a full range of personalized services to assist them in making a plan to adopt a newborn within the United States. We can assist in arranging for the conduct of a home study, searching for a birth family, and/or finalizing an adoption. We also provide assistance with second and step-parent adoptions.

Birth Parents:

We provide personal and confidential services to Birth Parents who are considering placing a baby for adoption. If you are pregnant and are considering making an adoption plan, please call for a free confidential consultation so that we can help you learn more about the adoption process and your legal rights as you consider entering into an adoption plan. You do not have to be alone in the process. We will work side by side with you as you work toward making a decision that is best for you and your child.

The Stork Lawyer®

Known by most as The Stork Lawyer®, Elizabeth Swire Falker (Liz) graduated from Wellesley College and The Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law. She was admitted to practice in New York State in 1994 before the Appellate Division, First Department, and is admitted in the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York. After spending seven years as a commercial litigator in Manhattan law firms and undergoing her own journey through infertility and adoption, she re-focused her career and now practices in the areas of reproductive and adoption law.

Liz is considered one of the most prominent voices in the United States with regard to infertility, third-party assisted reproduction, and family building. In addition to her legal background, she has authored two successful commercial books on infertility and adoption, including the best-selling cult classic, "The Infertility Survival Handbook" (Riverhead Books), and "The Ultimate Insider's Guide to Adoption" (Warner Books). She has published two law review articles, including one addressing issues involved in embryo donation, "The Disposition of Cryopreserved Embryos: Why Embryo Adoption Is An Inapposite Model For Application to Third-Party Assisted Reproduction", 35 William Mitch. L. Rev. (2009). Liz also maintains a popular blog which was listed by the American Bar Association among its directory of best legal "blawgs."

In addition to her legal practice and her writing, Liz also is the owner of The Stork Lawyer Connection™, the first of its kind egg donor advocacy agency. She also co-owns an escrow management company, The Stork Escrow Management Connection, Inc.™, which exclusively services the third-party assisted reproductive industry. Through The Stork Lawyer Companies™, Liz is able to provide a unique "one-stop" resource to help people going through infertility, third-party assisted reproduction, and/or adoption with all their family-building needs.

Liz also is the proud mother of two children through adoption.
